SECTION 1. TITLE

This local law shall be known and cited as "Animal Control Law of the Town of Moriah" being Local Law number 1 for 2015

SECTION 2. AUTHORITY

This Local Law is enacted pursuant to Article 7 of the Agricultural and Markets Law and Municipal Home Rule Law of the State of New York.

SECTION 3. PURPOSE

The Town Board of the Town of Moriah finds the running at large and other uncontrolled behavior of licensed and unlicensed animals has caused physical harm to persons, damage to property and created nuisances within the Town. The purpose of this Local Law is to protect the health, safety and well-being of persons and property from animal attack and damage by imposing restrictions in the keeping and running at large of animals, the provisions of licensing and identifying of dogs and other animals and the seizure thereof within the Town.

SECTION 4. DEFINITION OF TERMS

- a. AGRICULTURE AND MARKET LAW - Shall mean the Agriculture and Market Law of the State of New York in effect as the effective date of this local law, and as it may be amended thereafter. All terms defined in section 108 of the Agriculture and Markets Law shall have the same meaning as used herein unless specifically modified or otherwise defined herein.
- b. CONFINED - That such animal is securely confined or restrained when it is kept on the of the animal's owner, either within a building, kennel, or other suitable enclosure or securely fastened on a chain, wire or other effective tether of such length and so arranged that the animal cannot reach or endanger any person or any adjacent premises or on any public street, way, or place or, if the animal is being transported by the owner, it is securely confined in a crate, or in a container, or so restrained in a vehicle that it cannot escape therefrom.
- c. DOG - Dog shall mean male or female, licensed or unlicensed, members of the species Cannis Familiaris.
- d. ANIMAL - Animal shall include but is not limited to male or female, licensed or unlicensed, horses, cows, cattle, calves, swine, sheep, goats, donkeys, roosters, chickens, poultry, domestic rabbits and dogs.
- e. ANIMAL CONTROL OFFICER - Any person authorized by the Town Board of the Town of Moriah, Essex County Legislature or the State of New York from time to time, directed or permitted, to enforce the provisions of this Local Law or the provisions of the Agriculture and Markets Law.

f. HARBOR – To provide food or shelter to any animal for a period of three days or more.

g. LEASHED – The term leashed shall mean restricted by a leash attached to a collar or a harness of sufficient strength to restrain the dog/animal, which shall be held by a person having the ability to control the dog/animal. Leash shall be no more than 6 feet in length.

h. OWNER – An animal owner is the person, persons, firm, association or corporation who purchases the license, unless the animal is or has been lost and such loss reported to the Animal Control Officer of the police agency and reasonable search has been made. If an animal is not licensed, the term of the "owner" shall designate and cover any person or persons, firm, association, or corporation, who or which at any time owns or has custody or control of, harbors, or is otherwise responsible for any animal which is kept, brought or comes within the Town. Any person owning or harboring an animal for a period of one week prior to the filing of any complaint charging a violation of this Local Law shall be held deemed to be the owner of such animal for the purpose of this local law. In the event the animal found to be in violation of the chapter shall be owned by a minor, the head of the household in which said minor resides shall be deemed to have custody and control of said animal and shall be responsible for any acts of the said animal and violation of this local law.

i. RECREATION AREA – Recreation areas shall mean any real property owned by the Town, County, or State within the Town, which is used for recreational purposes by the public including, but not limited to, parks, or playgrounds.

j. RUN AT LARGE – Run at large shall mean any animal that is unleashed and on the property open to the public or is on private property not owned or leased by the owner of the dog/animal unless permission for such presence has been obtained. This includes the running on any public highway. No animal shall be deemed to be at large if it is: (1) accompanied by and under the immediate supervision and control of the owner or other responsible person and on a leash not exceeding 6 feet in length; (2) a police work dog in use for police work; (3) accompanied by its owner or other responsible person and is actively engaged in hunting or training for hunting on un-posted or posted land with the permission of the owner of the land; or (4) is in a fenced area.

k. TOWN – Town, shall mean all areas located within the Town of Moriah, Essex County, State of New York.

l. HABITUAL AND/OR HABITUALLY – With reference to howling, barking, whining and other prohibitive acts, habitual shall mean the conduct by the animal of any restrictive acts which lasts more than 60 minutes on any given day on more than three consecutive or non-consecutive days within any one week. With respect to the Restriction number 5, Section 5 of this local law, habitually shall be defined as running, chasing or running alongside or barking at any motor vehicles, motorcycle, bicycle or pedestrians while on a public street or highway or upon public or private property other than the owner or harbinger of said animal on more than three occasions within any 60 day period.

m. SCHOOL PREMISES – Means any real property situated within the Town of Moriah that is used for educational purposes or purposes incidental thereto.

SECTION 5. RESTRICTIONS

(A) It shall be unlawful for any owner of any animal in the Town of Moriah to permit or allow such animal to:

1. Run at large.
2. Engage in habitual loud howling, barking, or whining or conduct itself in such a manner so as to unreasonably and habitually annoy or disturb the comfort and repose of any person other than the owner of such animal.

With respect to this Restriction 2, one of the following conditions must have occurred at the time of the complaint:

(B) a valid complaint is made by an individual who has witnessed or heard the act alleged to have violated this Local Law.

7. If a female animal be off the owner's premises when in heat except when being transported to a veterinarian's office or when involved in a formalized controlled breeding program.
8. Be at large on any school premises or recreational areas, or the sidewalks adjacent thereto, unless said animal is on a leash.
9. Destroy, ill or damage any dog, cat, poultry, livestock or domestic pets not belonging to the owner.
10. Own an unlicensed dog and/or fail to license a dog.

- (B) Establishment of the fact or facts that an animal has committed any of the acts prohibited by subdivision (A) of this Section shall be presumptive evidence against the owner or harbinger of such animal that he/she failed to properly license, confine, leash, or control his/her animal.

SECTION 6 LICENSING OF DOGS

- (a) All dogs in the Town of Moriah must be licensed with the Town Clerk by the age of 4 months and are required to present a current Certificate of Rabies at the time of licensing or the renewal of an existing license. Permanent "New" residents must license dogs within 3 months of residency.
- (b) All dog licenses will be for a period of one year and will expire at the end of the month one year from the date of issue.
- (c) All applications for a dog license or renewal shall be made to the Town Clerk of the Town of Moriah and shall be accompanied by the statement certified by a licensed veterinarian showing that the dog has received the rabies vaccine; or in lieu thereof, a statement certified by a licensed veterinarian that because of the dogs age or other reasons, the life of the dog would be endangered by the administration of the vaccine. The application shall state the sex, actual or approximate age, breed, color, an official identification number of the dog, and other identification marks, if any, and the name, address, telephone number, county and town, city or village of residence of the owner and any additional information required by Resolution of the Town of Moriah Town Board.
- (d) No license shall be transferrable. Upon the transfer of ownership of any dog, the new owner shall immediately make application for license for such dog.
- (e) Fees for Licensing of Dogs:
The fee for spayed or neutered dogs will be $6.00, (which included the assessment of a $1.00 surcharge for the purpose of carrying out animal population control) and the fee for an unsprayed or unneutered dog will be $13.00, (which includes the assessment of a $3.00 surcharge for the purpose of carrying out animal population control) with such fees being reviewed by the Town Board periodically and may be changed by a resolution of the Town Board, if deemed necessary.

(f) Enumeration fee:

When the Town Board determines the need for a dog enumeration, a fee of $5.00 will be assessed to all dogs found unlicensed or un-renewed three month after notification of the completion of the enumeration.

(g) Purebred License:

The Town of Moriah will not be issuing Purebred or Kennel Licenses. All dogs will be licensed individually as per fee system stated above.

(h) Service Dogs:

The Town of Moriah will not require a license for any guide dog, service dog, hearing dog or detection dog.

(i) The Town of Moriah does not allow the licensing of dogs by a shelter. The shelter MUST send the adoptive dog owners to the Town Clerk of the Town or City in which the dog will be harbored for licensing OR to the Town of Moriah, where the shelter is located for the purchase of the license for adoption purposes.

(j) All dog licenses may be purchased by visiting the Town offices or by regular mail. If licensing or renewing a license by mail, the appropriate fee must accompany the forms. There will be NO refund of fees.

(k) All fees will be used in funding the administration of the Animal Control Law of the Town of Moriah.

(l) The identification tag issued by the Town will set forth an identification number together with the name of the Town of Moriah, the State of New York, contact information, including telephone number, for the municipality and other information as the Town of Moriah deems appropriate by resolution.

SECTION 7. ENFORCEMENT

This Local Law shall be enforced by any Animal Control Officer, any other Law Enforcement Officer when acting pursuant to his/her special duties, or police officer in the employ of or under contract to the Town.

SECTION 8. ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES-COMPLAINT/APPEARANCE TICKET

1. COMPLAINT:

(a) Any person who observes an animal in violation of this Local Law may file a Complaint with any Animal Control Officer of the Town of Moriah, Constable, Peace Officer or other Law Enforcement Officer when acting pursuant to his/her special duties, or a Town Justice specifying the nature of the violation, the date hereof, a description of the animal and the name and complaint may serve as the basis for enforcing the provisions of this Local Law.

(b) Upon receipt by the Town Justice of any such complaint, he/she shall summon the alleged owner to appear in person before him/her for a hearing, at which both the complainant and owner shall have an opportunity to be represented by counsel and to present evidence. If, after such Hearing, the Town Justice decides that further action is warranted, he/she may order:

1. The animal to be declared a vicious or dangerous animal, to be restrained by collar and leash at all times whether on or off the owner's property;
2. The animal may be confined to the premises of the owner.
3. Such other remedy as may be warranted by the circumstances in such case.
4. The owner to confine and destroy such animal as provided in Section 121 of the Agriculture and Markets Law, when such animal is determined to be dangerous in a dangerous animal proceeding pursuant to Section 121 of the Agriculture and Markets Law.
5. The owner or harbinger of the animal shall be fined as set forth in Section 10 of this Local Law.

(c) A violation of an Order issued by the Town Justice under the provisions of this Section 7 shall be an offense punishable, upon conviction thereof as provided in Section 10 of this Local Law.

2. APPEARANCE TICKET:

Should a written warning be deemed inappropriate due to a violation, or incident relating to this Local Law, the Animal control Officer, Peace Officer, or other person employed to enforce this Local Law, may issue and serve on the owner an appearance Ticket. The Appearance Ticket shall be in the form prescribed by the Criminal Procedure Law of the State of New York and returnable before a Town Justice of the Town.

SECTION 9. WARNINGS

Any Animal Control Officer, Law Enforcement Officer or other person employed to enforce this Local Law shall have the authority in his or her sole discretion to issue a warning at the time of the first offense rather than the enforcement as provided herein provided that there is no personal or real property damage resulting. The warning shall be in writing and shall be similar to that of an appearance Ticket and shall be issued to the owner of the animal or other person in control of the animal with the consent of the owner and a copy shall be filed with the Town Justice of the Town of Moriah. If, at the time of the first offense and warning, the animal has been seized, the animal shall be immediately returned to the owner if practicable. If the animal has to be impounded, the owner will be responsible of the impoundment fees as set forth herein.

SECTION 10. SEIZURE, IMPOUNDMENT, REDEMPTION AND ADOPTION

(A) Any Animal Control Officer, Law Enforcement Officer or other individual acting pursuant to his/her special duties or Police Officer employed by or under contract of the Town, may seize any animal in violation of this Local Law or:

- (a) Any animal which is not identified and which is not on the owner's premises;

(b) Any animal that is not licensed, whether on or off the owner's premises;

(c) Any licensed animal which is not in the control of its owner or custodian or not on the premises of the animal's owner or custodian, if there is probable cause to believe the animal is dangerous; and

(d) Any animal that poses an immediate threat to public safety.

(B) Promptly upon seizure of an identified animal, the owner of record of such animal shall be notified personally, or by certified mail, return receipt requested, of the facts of seizure and the procedure for redemption. If notification is personally given, such animal shall be held for a period of five days after day of notice, during which period the animal may be redeemed by the owner. If such notification is made by mail, such animal shall be held for a period of eight days from the date of mailing, during which period the animal may be redeemed by the owner. In either case, the owner may redeem such animal upon payment of the impoundment fees prescribed by subdivision four of this section and by producing proof that the animal has been licensed.

(C) Every animal seized shall be properly cared for, sheltered, fed and watered for the redemption period. Each animal which is not identified, whether or not licensed, shall be held for a period of five days from the day seized during which period the animal may be redeemed by its owner, provided that such owner produces proof that the animal has been licensed and has been identified pursuant to the provisions of this Article and further provided that the owner pays the following impoundment fees:

(a) An impoundment fee of $30.00 for the first impoundment; a fee of $100.00 for the second impoundment; together with the fee of $3.00 for each additional 24 hour period; a fee of $150.00 for a third impoundment; together with a fee of $3.00 for each additional 24 hour period.

(D) Seized animals may be redeemed by producing proof of licensing and identification pursuant to the provisions of Article 7 of the Agriculture and Markets Law and by paying the impoundment fees along with all the boarding fees incurred.

(E) Any animal unredeemed at the expiration of the appropriate redemption period shall be made available for adoption or euthanized pursuant to the provisions of the Agriculture and Markets Law.

(F) No action shall be maintained against the Town of Moriah, any Animal Control Officer or Law Enforcement Officer when acting pursuant to his/her special duties, or any other agent of office of the Town or person under contract to said Town of Moriah, to recover the possession or value of any animal or for damages for injury or compensation for the destruction of any animal seized or destroyed pursuant to the provisions of this local law or the Agriculture and Markets Law.

(G) The seizure of any animal or its redemption shall not relieve any person from any violation of this law or penalty described herein.

(H) At no time under this local law shall the Animal Control Officer, Law Enforcement Officer, when acting pursuant to his/her special duties, or Police Officer in the employ of the Town or under contract to the Town be authorized to enter a building in order to seize an animal without the permission of the building owner. When permission is not given and probable cause exists to believe that the animal is in the building and is in violation of the Agriculture and Markets Law or this Local Law, then an Animal Control Officer, Law Enforcement Officer when acting pursuant to this/her special duties, or Police Officer in the employ of the Town or under contract to the town may proceed before a court of law to obtain a warrant to enter the building to seize the dog by application of the Criminal Procedure Law, Article 690

SECTION 11. PENALTIES

(A) Any person who violates this Local Law or knowingly permits the violation of this Local Law or any of the provisions thereof shall be deemed to have committed an offense under this Local Law and any person convicted of any such violation after investigation and hearing shall be punished as hereinafter set forth:

1. For any violation of Section 6: Licensing of Dogs: Any person convicted of a violation shall be liable for a civil penalty of $50.00 for the first violation; $100.00 for a second violation and $150.00 for each subsequent violation.

2. Any person who shall violate any other provision of this Local Law exclusive of the provisions of Section 6: Licensing of Dogs, upon conviction for a first punishable violation of this Local Law shall be subject to a minimum fine of $70.00 and a maximum fine not to exceed $500.00 and/or imprisonment for a period not exceeding 15 days. Upon conviction of a second offense hereof; within the preceding five years, such persons shall be subject to a minimum fine of $100.00 and a maximum fine not to exceed $500.00 and/or imprisonment for a period not exceeding fifteen (15) days. Upon conviction of two or more such violations within the preceding five years the minimum fine shall be $200.00 and a maximum fine not to exceed $500.00 and /or imprisonment for a period not exceeding fifteen (15) days. The determining factor shall be whether or not the animal owner has a prior conviction of this Local Law. It shall be irrelevant whether or not the same animal is involved.

(B) In addition to the fines as provided for above, any Justice may also, if the circumstances in his or her discretion so warrant, order permanent confinement of an animal by the owner thereof.

(C) In the event of the failure of the animal owner to confine the animal after being ordered so to do, such animal may, upon order of an Justice, be euthanized subject, however, to the above prohibitions contained in Section 374 of the Agriculture and Markets Law hereinabove referred to.

(D) Each separate violation shall constitute a separate additional offense.

SECTION 12. OBSTRUCTION OF GOVERNMENTAL ADMINISTRATION

No person shall hinder, resist, or oppose the Animal Control Officer, Law Enforcement Officer when acting pursuant to his/her special duties, or police officer employed by or under contract to the Town, or other person(s) authorized to administer or enforce the provisions of this Local Law in the performance of the officer's or other person's duties under this Local Law. Any person hindering, resisting, or opposing the Animal Control Officer, Law Enforcement Officer, when acting pursuant to his/her special duties, police officer, employed by or under contract to the Town shall be prosecuted pursuant to the Penal Law 195.05, Obstructing government administration in the second degree.

SECTION 13. SEPARABILITY

Each separate provision of this Local Law shall be deemed independent of all other provisions herein, and if provisions shall be deemed or declared invalid, all other provision hereof shall remain valid and enforceable.

SECTION 14. REPEALER

This Local Law shall supersede all prior local laws, ordinances, rules and regulations including

SECTION 15. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Local Law shall take effect on July 9, 2015
